INDEX TO 1982 ARTICLES

Author

Adams, Frank J., Micros bolster mainframes, Jan, p. 118

Bleininger, Leonard, Win with Winchesters, June, p. 204

Brown, Julia G., The friendly future in office automation, Apr, p. 144; Portables: At your service, May, p. 86; Graphics in bloom, July, p. 146; The multifunction mini, Aug, p. 112; Timesharing/remote computing, Sept, p. 112; Selective office automation, Dec, p. 128

Darrath, Owen K., Managing media, Feb, p. 142

Feinschreiber, Robert, Tax breaks for software R&D, Apr, p. 176

Fertig, Robert T., The good and bad of System 38, Oct, p. 88

Gebremedhin, Elinor, PCMs: Rolling with the punches, Nov, p. 96

Good, Phillip and Kathryn, Remotivating staff after a project aborts, Feb, p. 136

Halbrecht, Herbert, Scenario for succession, Jan, p. 110

Kearney, James F., Planning a successful network, Feb, p. 200

Kirk, John, Machine dictation: It's a matter of time, Mar, p. 178

Kull, David, Staying up 100%, Feb, p. 176; Dp weathers the recession, Mar, p. 94; Group decisions: Can computers help?, May, p. 70; No more 9 to 5?, June, p. 160; What to do about lazy pros, July, p. 138; The multifunction mini, Aug, p. 112; Disaster recovery—just in case. . . , Sept, p. 180; The dawn of IRM, Oct, p. 94; Keep the boss happy, Nov, p. 174; Beware the headhunter, Dec, p. 144

Lasden, Martin, Career vs. family: Are you being pulled apart?, Jan, p. 126; Before you reach your breaking point, Feb, p. 84; Untapped talent, Mar, p. 132; Keeping pace in data entry, Apr, p. 90; Is there really a programmer shortage?, July, p. 104; Federal monkey on your back?, Sept, p. 96; Testing your mettle, Oct, p. 162; When to talk tough, Oct, p. 176; Computer-aided decision-making, Nov, p. 156; Make room for executive workstations, Dec, p. 116

Miles, Mary, Are you coach or quarterback?, Aug, p. 150

Orsey, Robert R., Business Systems Planning: Management of information, Feb, p. 154

Roman, David, How to keep the users satisfied, Jan, p. 79; Word-processing packages: Take your pick, Jan, p. 144; Ollie Wight on productivity in manufacturing, Apr, p. 171; Solving your financial puzzles, Aug, p. 162; You can cut costs, Sept, p. 156; Team up for maintenance, Dec, p. 160

Seaman, John, Common carriers—faster, better, cheaper, Jan, p. 84; Local networks: Making the right connection, June, p. 122; Is your PABX a relic?, July, p. 120; Controlling network traffic, Aug, p. 132; Electronic mail: Coming at you, Oct, p. 128; Putting data-comm hardware to work, Nov, p. 114

Snyders, Jan, New trends in DBMS, Feb, p. 100; Software showcase '82 (Part I), Mar, p. 140; Software showcase '82 (Part II), Apr, p. 112; Generators do the trick, June, p. 210; Software: A sackful of solutions, Dec, p. 94

Uris, Auren, Early (working) retirement: Is it for you?, May, p. 108

Whieldon, David, MIS/dp pay: Are you keeping up?, Feb, p. 160; MIS/dp pay: More than money, Mar, p. 86; When power problems strike, Mar, p. 102; Staffing: How many are enough?, Apr, p. 180; Keeping up professionally, May, p. 124; Make way for micros, June, p. 184; Printers: More than ink on paper, Aug, p. 84; Now on view—the latest crts, Sept, p. 130; Pulling the power in, Oct, p. 110; Buy/lease/rent—Make your best deal, Nov, p. 182; Space wars: The quest for more storage, Dec, p. 168

Zachmann, William F., Doors open for multilingual staff, May, p. 138

Subject

Aborted projects

Remotivating staff after a project aborts, Phillip and Kathryn Good, Feb, p. 136

Alternative work schedules

No more 9 to 5?, David Kull, June, p. 160

BSP (Business Systems Planning)

Business Systems Planning: Management of information, Robert Orsey, Feb, p. 154

Careers

Career vs. family—Are you being pulled apart?, Martin Lasden, Jan, p. 126

Common carriers

Common carriers—better, faster, cheaper, John Seaman, Jan, p. 84

Cost-cutting

Is your PABX a relic?, John Seaman, July, p. 120

Selective office automation, Julia G. Brown, Dec, p. 128

You can cut costs, David Roman, Sept, p. 156

Crts

Now on view—the latest crts, David Whieldon, Sept, p. 130

Third annual crt and teleprinter comparison chart, June, p. 230

Data communications

Group decisions: Can computers help?, David Kull, May, p. 70

Putting data-comm hardware to work, John Seaman, Nov, p. 114

Data entry

Keeping pace in data entry, Martin Lasden, Apr, p. 90

INDEX TO 1982 ARTICLES

Author

Adams, Frank J., Micros bolster mainframes, Jan, p. 118

Bleininger, Leonard, Win with Winchesters, June, p. 204

Brown, Julia G., The friendly future in office automation, Apr, p. 144; Portables: At your service, May, p. 86; Graphics in bloom, July, p. 146; The multifunction mini, Aug, p. 112; Timesharing/remote computing, Sept, p. 112; Selective office automation, Dec, p. 128

Darrath, Owen K., Managing media, Feb, p. 142

Feinschreiber, Robert, Tax breaks for software R&D, Apr, p. 176

Fertig, Robert T., The good and bad of System 38, Oct, p. 88

Gebremedhin, Elinor, PCMs: Rolling with the punches, Nov, p. 96

Good, Phillip and Kathryn, Remotivating staff after a project aborts, Feb, p. 136

Halbrecht, Herbert, Scenario for succession, Jan, p. 110

Kearney, James F., Planning a successful network, Feb, p. 200

Kirk, John, Machine dictation: It's a matter of time, Mar, p. 178

Kull, David, Staying up 100%, Feb, p. 176; Dp weathers the recession, Mar, p. 94; Group decisions: Can computers help?, May, p. 70; No more 9 to 5?, June, p. 160; What to do about lazy pros, July, p. 138; The multifunction mini, Aug, p. 112; Disaster recovery—just in case. . . , Sept, p. 180; The dawn of IRM, Oct, p. 94; Keep the boss happy, Nov, p. 174; Beware the headhunter, Dec, p. 144

Lasden, Martin, Career vs. family: Are you being pulled apart?, Jan, p. 126; Before you reach your breaking point, Feb, p. 84; Untapped talent, Mar, p. 132; Keeping pace in data entry, Apr, p. 90; Is there really a programmer shortage?, July, p. 104; Federal monkey on your back?, Sept, p. 96; Testing your mettle, Oct, p. 162; When to talk tough, Oct, p. 176; Computer-aided decision-making, Nov, p. 156; Make room for executive workstations, Dec, p. 116

Miles, Mary, Are you coach or quarterback?, Aug, p. 150

Orsey, Robert R., Business Systems Planning: Management of information, Feb, p. 154

Roman, David, How to keep the users satisfied, Jan, p. 79; Word-processing packages: Take your pick, Jan, p. 144; Ollie Wight on productivity in manufacturing, Apr, p. 171; Solving your financial puzzles, Aug, p. 162; You can cut costs, Sept, p. 156; Team up for maintenance, Dec, p. 160

Seaman, John, Common carriers—faster, better, cheaper, Jan, p. 84; Local networks: Making the right connection, June, p. 122; Is your PABX a relic?, July, p. 120; Controlling network traffic, Aug, p. 132; Electronic mail: Coming at you, Oct, p. 128; Putting data-comm hardware to work, Nov, p. 114

Snyders, Jan, New trends in DBMS, Feb, p. 100; Software showcase '82 (Part I), Mar, p. 140; Software showcase '82 (Part II), Apr, p. 112; Generators do the trick, June, p. 210; Software: A sackful of solutions, Dec, p. 94

Uris, Auren, Early (working) retirement: Is it for you?, May, p. 108

Whieldon, David, MIS/dp pay: Are you keeping up?, Feb, p. 160; MIS/dp pay: More than money, Mar, p. 86; When power problems strike, Mar, p. 102; Staffing: How many are enough?, Apr, p. 180; Keeping up professionally, May, p. 124; Make way for micros, June, p. 184; Printers: More than ink on paper, Aug, p. 84; Now on view—the latest crts, Sept, p. 130; Pulling the power in, Oct, p. 110; Buy/lease/rent—Make your best deal, Nov, p. 182; Space wars: The quest for more storage, Dec, p. 168

Zachmann, William F., Doors open for multilingual staff, May, p. 138

Subject

Aborted projects

Remotivating staff after a project aborts, Phillip and Kathryn Good, Feb, p. 136

Alternative work schedules

No more 9 to 5?, David Kull, June, p. 160

BSP (Business Systems Planning)

Business Systems Planning: Management of information, Robert Orsey, Feb, p. 154

Careers

Career vs. family—Are you being pulled apart?, Martin Lasden, Jan, p. 126

Common carriers

Common carriers—better, faster, cheaper, John Seaman, Jan, p. 84

Cost-cutting

Is your PABX a relic?, John Seaman, July, p. 120

Selective office automation, Julia G. Brown, Dec, p. 128

You can cut costs, David Roman, Sept, p. 156

Crts

Now on view—the latest crts, David Whieldon, Sept, p. 130

Third annual crt and teleprinter comparison chart, June, p. 230

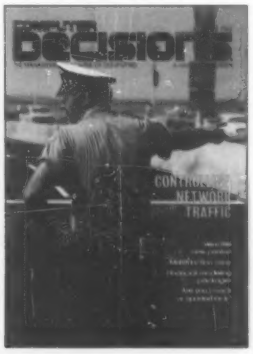
Data communications

Group decisions: Can computers help?, David Kull, May, p. 70

Putting data-comm hardware to work, John Seaman, Nov, p. 114

Data entry

Keeping pace in data entry, Martin Lasden, Apr, p. 90



DBMS

New trends in DBMS, Jan Snyders, Feb, p. 100

Desk-top computers

Make way for micros, David Whieldon, June, p. 184

Dictation

Machine dictation: It's a matter of time, John Kirk, Mar, p. 178

Disaster recovery

Disaster recovery—just in case. . ., David Kull, Sept, p. 180

Disks

Win with Winchesters, Leonard Bleininger, June, p. 204

Electronic mail

Electronic mail: Coming at you, John Seaman, Oct, p. 128

Evaluation

Testing your mettle, Martin Lasden, Oct, p. 162

Financial modeling

Solving your financial puzzles, David Roman, Aug, p. 162

Generators

Generators do the trick, Jan Snyders, June, p. 210

Graphics

Graphics in bloom, Julia G. Brown, July, p. 146

Handicapped

Untapped talent, Martin Lasden, Mar, p. 132

Hardware

Buy/lease/rent—Make your best deal, David Whieldon, Nov, p. 182

Space wars: The quest for more storage, David Whieldon, Dec, p. 168

Headhunters

Beware the headhunter, David Kull, Dec, p. 144

Is there really a programmer shortage?, Martin Lasden, July, p. 104

Hiring practices

Is there really a programmer shortage?, Martin Lasden, July, p. 104

Untapped talent, Martin Lasden, Mar, p. 132

What to do about lazy pros, David Kull, July, p. 138

IRM (Information Resource Management)

The dawn of IRM, David Kull, Oct, p. 94

Languages

Doors open for multilingual staff, William Zachmann, May, p. 138

Leasing

Buy/lease/rent—Make your best deal, David Whieldon, Nov, p. 182

Mainframes

Micros bolster mainframes, Frank J. Adams, Jan, p. 118

PCMs: Rolling with the punches, Elinor Gebremedhin, Nov, p. 96

Maintenance

Team up for maintenance, David Roman, Dec, p. 160

Management

Are you coach or quarterback?, Mary Miles, Aug, p. 150

Computer-aided decision-making, Martin Lasden, Nov, p. 114

Controlling network traffic, John Seaman, Aug, p. 132

Federal monkey on your back?, Martin Lasden, Sept, p. 96

Keep the boss happy, David Kull, Nov, p. 174

Managing media, Owen K. Darrath, Feb, p. 142

When to talk tough, Martin Lasden, Oct, p. 176

Microcomputers

Make way for micros, David Whieldon, June, p. 184

Micros bolster mainframes, Frank J. Adams, Jan, p. 118

Minicomputers

The multifunction mini, David Kull and Julia G. Brown, Aug, p. 112

MRP (Manufacturing Resource Planning)

Ollie Wight on productivity in manufacturing, David Roman, Apr, p. 171

Networks

Controlling network traffic, John Seaman, Aug, p. 132

Local networks: Making the right connection, John Seaman, June, p. 122

Planning a successful network, John Seaman, Feb, p. 200

Office automation

The friendly future in office automation, Julia G. Brown, Apr, p. 144

Selective office automation, Julia G. Brown, Dec, p. 128

PABX

Is your PABX a relic?, John Seaman, July, p. 120

Portables

Portables: At your service, Julia G. Brown, May, p. 86

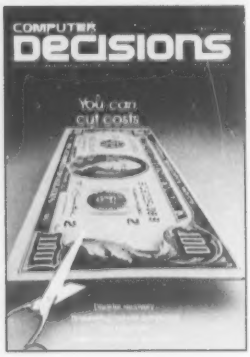
Power

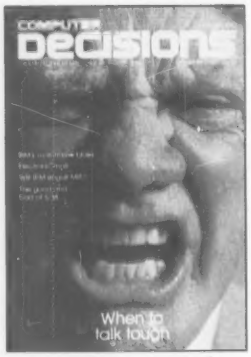
When power problems strike, David Whieldon, Mar, p. 102

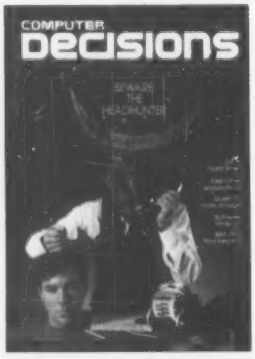
Printers

Printers: More than ink on paper, David Whieldon, Aug, p. 84

INDEX TO 1982 ARTICLES







Programmers

Is there really a programmer shortage? Martin Lasden, July, p. 104

Recession

Dp weathers the recession, David Kull, Mar, p. 94

Recruiters

Beware the headhunter, David Kull, Dec, p. 144

Retirement

Early (working) retirement—Is it for you?, Auren Uris, May, p. 108

Salaries

MIS/dp pay: Are you keeping up? David Whieldon, Feb, p. 160

MIS/dp pay: More than money, David Whieldon, Mar, p. 86

Software

Software: A sackful of solutions, Jan Snyders, Dec, p. 94

Software showcase '82 (Part I), Jan Snyders, Mar, p. 140

Software showcase '82 (Part II), Jan Snyders, Apr, p. 112

Staffing

Staffing: How many are enough? David Whieldon, Apr, p. 180

Storage

Space wars: The quest for more storage, David Whieldon, Dec, p. 168

Stress

Before you reach your breaking point, Martin Lasden, Feb, P. 84

Succession

Scenario for succession, Herbert Halbrecht, Jan, p. 110

System 38

The good and bad of System 38, Robert T. Fertig, Oct, p. 88

Taxes

Tax breaks for software R&D, Robert Feinschreiber, Apr, p. 176

Technology updating

Keeping up professionally, David Whieldon, May, p. 124

Telecommunications

Testing your mettle, Martin Lasden, Oct, p. 162

Teleprinters

Third annual crt and teleprinter comparison chart, June, p. 230

Timesharing

Pulling the power in, David Whieldon, Oct, p. 110

Timesharing/remote computing, Julia G. Brown, Sept, p. 112

Uptime

Staying up 100%, David Kull, Feb, p. 176

Users

How to keep the users satisfied, David Roman, Jan, p. 79

Word processing

Word-processing packages: Take your pick, David Roman, Jan, p. 144

Work schedules

No more 9 to 5?, David Kull, June, p. 160

Workstations

Make room for executive workstations, Martin Lasden, Dec, p. 116

Title

A

Are you coach or quarterback?, Mary Miles, Aug, p. 150

B

Before you reach your breaking point, Martin Lasden, Feb, p. 84

Beware the headhunter, David Kull, Dec, p. 144

Business Systems Planning: Management of information, Robert Orsey, Feb, p. 154

Buy/lease/rent—Make your best deal, David Whieldon, Nov, p. 182

C

Career vs. family: Are you being pulled apart?, Martin Lasden, Jan, p. 126

Common carriers—faster, better, cheaper, John Seaman, Jan, p. 84

Computer-aided decision-making, Martin Lasden, Nov, p. 156

Controlling network traffic, John Seaman, Aug, p. 132

D

The dawn of IRM, David Kull, Oct, p. 94

Disaster recovery—just in case. . ., David Kull, Sept, p. 180

Doors open for multilingual staff, William F. Zachmann, May, p. 138

Dp weathers the recession, David Kull, Mar, p. 94

E

Early (working) retirement: Is it for you?, Auren Uris, May, p. 108

Electronic mail: Coming at you, John Seaman, Oct, p. 128

F

Federal monkey on your back?, Martin Lasden, Sept, p. 96

The friendly future in office automation, Julia G. Brown, Apr, p. 144

G

Generators do the trick, Jan Snyders, June, p. 210

The good and bad of System 38, Robert T. Fertig, Oct, p. 88

Graphics in bloom, Julia G. Brown, July, p. 146

Group decisions: Can computers help?, David Kull, May, p. 70

H

How to keep the users satisfied, David Roman, Jan, p. 79

I

Is there really a programmer shortage?, Martin Lasden, July, p. 104

Is your PABX a relic?, John Seaman, July, p. 120

K

Keep the boss happy, David Kull, Nov, p. 174

Keeping pace in data entry, Martin Lasden, Apr, p. 90

Keeping up professionally, David Whieldon, May, p. 124

L

Local networks: Making the right connection, John Seaman, June, p. 122

M

Machine dictation: It's a matter of time, John Kirk, Mar, p. 178

Make room for executive workstations, Martin Lasden, Dec, p. 116

Make way for micros, David Whieldon, June, p. 184

Managing media, Owen K. Darrath, Feb, p. 142

Micros bolster mainframes, Frank J. Adams, Jan, p. 118

MIS/dp pay: Are you keeping up?, David Whieldon, Feb, p. 160

MIS/dp pay: More than money, David Whieldon, Mar, p. 86

The multifunction mini, David Kull and Julia G. Brown, Aug, p. 112

N

New trends in DBMS, Jan Snyders, Feb, p. 100

No more 9 to 5?, David Kull, June, p. 160

Now on view—The latest crts, David Whieldon, Sept, p. 130

O

Ollie Wight on productivity in manufacturing, David Roman, Apr, p. 171

P

PCMs: Rolling with the punches, Elinor Gebremedhin, Nov, p. 96

Planning a successful network, John Seaman, Feb, p. 200

Portables: At your service, Julia G. Brown, May, p. 86

Printers: More than ink on paper, David Whieldon, Aug, p. 84

Pulling the power in, David Whieldon, Oct, p. 110

Putting data-comm hardware to work, John Seaman, Nov, p. 114

R

Remotivating staff after a project aborts, Phillip and Kathryn Good, Feb, p. 136

S

Scenario for succession, Herbert Halbrecht, Jan, p. 110

Selective office automation, Julia G. Brown, Dec, p. 128

Software: A sackful of solutions, Jan Snyders, Dec, p. 94

Software showcase '82 (Part I), Jan Snyders, Mar, p. 140

Software showcase '82 (Part II), Jan Snyders, Apr, p. 112

Solving your financial puzzles, David Roman, Aug, p. 162

Space wars: The quest for more storage, David Whieldon, Dec, p. 168

Staffing: How many are enough?, David Whieldon, Apr, p. 180

Staying up 100%, David Kull, Feb, p. 176

T

Tax breaks for software R&D, Robert Feinschreiber, Apr, p. 176

Team up for maintenance, David Roman, Dec, p. 160

Testing your mettle, Martin Lasden, Oct, p. 162

Third annual crt and teleprinter comparison charts, June, p. 230

Timesharing/remote computing, Julia G. Brown, Sept, p. 112

U-Z

Untapped talent, Martin Lasden, Mar, p. 132

What to do about lazy pros, David Kull, July, p. 138

When power problems strike, David Whieldon, Mar, p. 102

When to talk tough, Martin Lasden, Oct, p. 176

Win with Winchesters, Leonard Bleininger, June, p. 204

Word-processing packages: Take your pick, David Roman, Jan, p. 144

You can cut costs, David Roman, Sept, p. 156

COMPUTER DECISIONS READS MANAGEMENT

We know what the decision makers want from a user magazine and we give it to them every month

- Practical Application Stories
- Incisive Columns
- Vital Product Information
- Thorough Software Coverage
- Management Strategies

Because we deliver what they need for managing their information resources more effectively–

Management Reads

COMPUTER DECISIONS

THE ONLY MANAGEMENT MAGAZINE OF COMPUTING